Lynden Christian High School

Lynden, Washington

As students of Lynden Christian High and members of its Excelsior staff, we welcome you to our school. We count it a pleasure to be able to show you our school via the pages of this '57 Excelsior; and it is our sincere desire that you will come to know better the functions and purposes of our school, as a result of this visit.

We, the students of Christian High, are quite like other young people. We possess the same basic attributes as do other youth: faith and ambition; and it is the primary purpose of Christian High to direct these characteristics into channels of consecrated Christian living.

H. W. Beecher once said: "As plants take hold, not for the sake of staying, but only that they may climb higher, so it is with men." And Charles Bridges said: "Christian faith is . . . the soul's venture. It ventures to Christ, in opposition to all legal terrors. It ventures on Christ in opposition to our guiltiness. It ventures for Christ, in opposition to all difficulties and discouragements."

With these thoughts in mind, the Excelsior Staff of Chistian High presents . . .

MRS. MARY DE BOER

Dedication . . .

Because you have consecrated yourself to doing the task which God has placed before you; because you have given to your students, not only instruction in homemaking, but also guidance in living Christian lives; we, the Excelsior Staff, dedicate this '57 Excelsior to you, Mrs. Mary De Boer.

You have given us five years of diligent labor by faithfully and efficiently instructing the hands and minds of our future homemakers. You have also given generously of your time and ability to the Junior and Senior Girls' Clubs; and you have helped make successful our banquets and other social activities. For all this, we say a simple, but sincere, "Thank you."

It is our prayer that God's blessing may rest upon you and your labor in all the coming years; and we know your consecrated work in God's kingdom will be richly rewarded in eternity.

Administration . . .

"All government and all exercise of power, no matter in what form, which is not based on love, and directed by knowledge, is tyranny." Mrs. Jameson.

Standing: Mark Vander Ark, Clarence Bode, Kenneth Kornelis, Bud Heeringa, William Nyland, Harry Zylstra, Jim Van Andel, Ray Knutzen, Herman Bosman. Seated: Jack Veltkamp, treasurer; Edward Kok, president; Joe T. De Jong, vice president; W. B. Vander Griend, secretary.

The Lynden Christian School Board extends to you, the graduating class of 1957, its heartiest congratulations. May the Christian education given you in the twelve years of the Christian School be hallowed unto each and every one of your hearts.

Your theme, "Seeking New Horizons," speaks of seeking, and the horizon is where sky and earth meet. So your education has been directed to equip you for this life and the life to come — Heaven and Earth.

The Word of God often speaks of seeking. "Seek and you shall find," Matt. 7:7, and "Seek ye first the Kingdom of Heaven and all other things shall be added unto you," Luke 12:31. The world would recant this, and say, "Seek ye first all other things and the Kingdom of Heaven and then righteousness will be added unto you." That is secular education and not Christian education. In Christian education, we stress the Kingdom of God first and then we have the promise of God. Class of 1957, that all other things will be added unto you.

In Seeking New Horizons, Class of 1957, "Seek ye first the Kingdom of Heaven."

SCHOOL BOARD

EDWARD F. KOK, President

Seeking New Horizons

ONE MUD Dear Class of 1957:

ONE STARS "Two Men look out through the same bars; One sees mud, and one sees stars."

You are about to graduate from Lynden Christian High. Congratulations to you. We trust that your role as a citizen of your country, and of the Kingdom of Heaven, will be a credit to the name of our school.

"Seeking New Horizons" for the graduate of a Christian school must mean a great deal. The goals set forth by the founders of our school, and by your teachers, envisioned a perspective like that of the man who looked out of a barred window to see the stars.

The person who thinks of his high school graduation only as a means toward making a better living has about as dim a view as the incarcerated man who saw only mud through his window. Merely to know how to make a better living and to enjoy the things of this world is to place one's horizons too low.

As you go out into mature living, we want your level of vision to be fixed on the stars. Such a vision sees the creating, providing, and redeeming Lord of a great and loving God in every area of life. Horizons on this level are seen by those of whom Jesus said: "And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

Yours in the Master's Service,

Student Council . . .

The Student Council of 1956-1957 feels that this year, as those previous, has been a success. Under the expert advising of Mr. Vander Ark and Mr. Engbers, the council directed many student activities. Getting the students to know each other at the "Mixer" was our first task. Student Body tickets were sold to help finance various projects. A new atmosphere was given chapel with the gym dividers and the new pulpit.

The students elected song and cheer leaders to aid in singing and yelling at games. The Christmas tournament was sponsored by the council again this year. A new club was organized, called the "Vigilantes." This club is to take care of policing the doors at games.

The High School picnic was held again under the direction of the council. Awards for various activities were given at the end of the school year to those who merited them.

To the students of L. C. H. S., the council expresses its appreciation for splendid cooperation.

Class History

We, the class of '57, have come to the close of our High School days; now we look back over the past four years.

Starting with our Freshman year, we entered the halls of Lynden Chrisitan High a little uneasy because it was so different. The Mixer helped us get acquainted. Our advisors, Mr. Bill Blake and Mr. Andrew De Jong, also helped us get accustomed to high school.

We felt more at ease when we returned to school as Sophomores. Our advisors this year were Miss Marian Van Dyken and Mr. Bernard Engbers. We enjoyedour class hi!e to Sumas Mountain, even if we did get soaked in the rain.

Our Junior year was a busy one. We chose our class rings a few weeks after school started. We were very happy and proud to get our rings, even if some didn't keep theirs long. Another great event during our Junior year was the Junior-Senior Banquet. We put many hours of work into the Swiss setting, "Auf Weidersehen." We hoped the Seniors were as delighted with the results as we were. Miss Marian Vander Ark and Mr. Norman De Boer were our advisors during our Junior year. We were very sorry to have Mr. De Boer taken away from us. We will always remember him, for all he has done for us, and for everyone else.

We then became Seniors; this was a very happy and busy year. We were proud of the Seniors who won honors for us by participating in debate, speech contests, dramatics, choir, and many other events. We will always remember the Junior-Senior Banquet, at which we were honored guests. Our Masquerade Party and our Senior Skip Day are other events we will not forget. Miss Alice Terpstra and Mr. John Vander Veen were our class sponsors.

Now that we have looked over our past four years, we are ready to look ahead to a new period in our lives. We thank God for guiding and protecting us thus far in our lives, and may He watch over us as we each go our separate ways. As we are ready to leave Lynden Christian High, we must all say, "Lead Me, Lord."

We received Christian guidance . . .

Chapel . . . a time of song, of prayer, and of thoughtful meditation.

There is always a need for spiritual growth, and at Christian High a special effort is made by student leaders and teachers to meet that need.

Each Tuesday and Thursday morning, the student body and faculty gather in the gym for a half-hour of reverent worship.

The chapel committee, composed of student council members, makes arrangements for each chapel service, by selecting a song leader, pianist, scripture reader and speaker.

Students, as well as faculty members, take turns reading scripture, leading song service and giving chapel talks, and thus help to make chapel an inspirational and integral part of school activity.

We in Christian High share the conviction: "Christianity is intended to be the guide, the guardian, the companion of all our hours; to be the food of our immortal spirits; to be the serious occupation of our whole existence." — John Jebb.

JACK GROTENHUIS, Director

Martin Luther once said, concerning music: "It is one of the most magnificent and delightful presents God has given us"; and it follows, then, that we should use that gift — use it well, and use it to God's honor and glory. Such is the purpose and aim of the music department at Christian High.

Under the direction of Mr. Dale Grotenhuis during the past two years, the department has grown, and music has now become an important part of our curriculum.

The impression music makes upon its hearers is largely due to the manner in which it is performed. And with this in mind, our director has taught us breath control, correct pronunciation, and all the little things necessary for a finished performance. But more important than that, he has emphasized the necessity of submerging ourselves in the music — thus imparting to it a certain vitality which not only pleases the ear, but also touches and moves the heart of the listener.

Of course, these things require a great deal of work, and if you were to visit us during band and choir rehearsals, you would find us busily repeating phrases until the exact mood has been captured. Much hard work is involved in the preparation of a program. But such work pays off by adding to each musical score not only correctness but a definite note of inspiration. At the time of this writing, it appears that the hard work of our A Cappella Choir will pay off in yet another way. For they are planning to attend the Grand Rapids Music Festival in Grand Rapids, Michigan — which will also include, Deo Volente, several concerts enroute to and from Michigan. So, the members of the Choir, in addition to learning mus,ic, are busy washing cars, selling things, holding benefit dinners, etc., in order to earn the $3,500 needed to take them to Michigan. When A Cappella Choir members began practicing last September, there were but the usual yearly events to look forward to. Then came the news about the trip — totally unexpected. Everyone has "pitched in" to help raise the money, and the Choir is very grateful to all of those who have helped — with a special word of thanks to the Girls' Chorus for working as hard at it as the Choir members themselves. Time only will reveal all of the many good effects of the trip on Choir members, their families, and the Student Body of Christian High. About the only thing we can say now, is that it has helped to make this year a "big" year in the short history of our school's music department. In closing, we can but say we are thankful to God for directing the events of this year; He is, indeed, our Great Director. And music — well, music is pretty much what the Scottish poet James Hogg said it is . . .

CHRISTIAN HIGH BAND

"Of all the arts beneath the heaven
That man has found or God has given,
None draws the soul so sweet away,
As music's melting, mystic lay;
Slight emblem of the bliss above,
It soothes the spirit all to love."

"The best music is what it should be — sacred." — Coleridge.

Mrs. Ripperda, Music Instructor of Elementary Grades

We feel that Mrs. Ripperda's work, though performed in the elementary grades, deserves recognition in that part of our annual which deals with our music department.

As music instructor of elementary pupils, Mrs. Ripperda is doing a fine job of developing an appreciation for music among these younger children. This will definitely have a beneficial effect on our high school music depatrment, as the youth move into our high school. It also greatly enriches the lives of those pupils who gain from her an appreciation for good music.

For all this, we believe Mrs. Ripperda deserves a "Thank you" — and we wish to extend that thanks to her here and now. So . . . "Thank you, Mrs. Ripperda; and keep up the good work."
